and another weapons cache that included five mortar tubes and assorted equipment, five anti-aircraft machine guns, one recoilless rifle and 30 pounds of explosives.

The first allied visit to the valley lasted a month, and the American and South Vietnamese troops are not expected to stay long this time either. The valley is at the end of the allied supply line and is often closed in by clouds and fog, and U.S. officers say it would take a division of troops to control it.

A U.S. spokesman said the invasion is considered a spoiling attack to cut the enemy supply and infiltration lines and "to do what other damage we can before the monsoons begin this fall."

Scores of air strikes and reconnaissance flights last week preceded the weekend troop landing, and B52 bombers dropped 1,800 tons of explosives. Two helicopters and an F100 Supersonic fighter-bomber were shot down over the valley last Friday by heavy anti-aircraft fire.

There are about 206 named bones in the adult human body.

G&F Ouster Hearing Set August 26

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Testimony in the ouster hearing against a member of the state Game and Fish Commission, Raymond Farris of Biscoe, will begin Aug. 26.

Courtney C. Crouch of Springfield, one of the two hearing officers appointed by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, said Wednesday that Sam Robinson of Little Rock, a former justice of the state Supreme Court who is representing Farris, has been notified.

Robinson had asked for a delay Monday in the hearing while Farris underwent treatment for tuberculosis.

Crouch said the hearing would be on all of the nine charges of breach of trust prepared by H. W. McMillan of Arkadelphia, who will present the case against Farris.

Crouch also said he understood that there were some charges against other members of the commission but that this hearing was not concerned with those.

Steel Price Hike Seen an Improvement

PITTSBURGH (AP)—After steel price increases settled at more moderate levels Wednesday, President Johnson said the new prices are "a substantial improvement from the general inflationary threat."

Arthur M. Okun, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, said the new price levels "significantly reduced the threat of a large and general inflation in steel prices. Compared to the threat last week, American consumers have been saved a half billion dollars' inflation."

U.S. steel, the nation's top producer, made the key move Wednesday by announcing price hikes more modest than those posted earlier by other big firms.

Within hours, Bethlehem, Republic, Armco and Inland said their earlier boosts would be pared down to match U.S. Steel's selective increases. If applied throughout the industry, the increases would mean an average hike of about 2.5 per cent or $4.30 a ton on 60 per cent of the industry's shipments.

Bethlehem, the No. 2 producer, was the first to announce a cut in its previously posted hike of almost 5 per cent.

Although the hikes affect steels used for such major products as autos and appliances, the Johnson administration seemed ready to let them stand.

White House Press Secretary George Christian, however, cautioned: "The success of our continued efforts to combat inflation depends on renewed price stability in steel in the months ahead."

Mississippi County Judge A. A. Banks Wednesday called for four-year terms for county officials and he said county government needed to have more authority in legislative matters.

Banks, speaking at the Arkansas Farm Bureau Officers and Leaders Conference here, said, "Under the two-year system we are getting now, a person announcing for office must run from April to November."

Banks said this means they must neglect their duties every two years to run for office.

Calling for a broader tax base, Banks said the only alternative to "our financial crisis is either to cut down on services or to increase revenues."

Banks plugged the Association of Arkansas Counties, saying the association had felt that a proposed bill that would have given the association 1 per cent of county turnback funds "was a bargain for the taxpayers."

Banks said that the original bill, which was defeated in the Arkansas House by one vote, called for the turnback funds to go into the association on a mandatory checkoff basis. He said the association now had slon since suffering the attack Tuesday morning, but has received reports from his son, John, who flew to the Capital from Miami Beach.

Presumably the general was not awakened to be told of the nomination early today of Richard M. Nixon as the Republican presidential candidate.

Eisenhower, who gave Nixon a lukewarm endorsement for the presidency eight years ago after Nixon understudied him through two terms, came out strongly for his former vice president in a hospital news conference several weeks ago.

David Eisenhower, the former president's grandson, told newsmen in Miami Beach that he had been told Eisenhower's condition was "normal for this stage and his progress in satisfactory."

"We expect he'll be confined for another 40 days or so and then we hope maybe we'll get him out of the hospital," David said.

He said he got this information from his father and added that since the general had discussed politics he assumed "he's doing okay."

Eisenhower is being given oxygen continuously in his hospital suite and is being fed a low-salt, liquid diet by mouth.

Visitors have been restricted to the immediate family, including, besides John, the general's wife, Mamie. She has been with him since he was brought to Walter Reed last May.

Asked how the latest attack compared with the previous one June 15, which was called major, Eisenhower's doctors said "equal severity."

They referred to the latest one as myocardial infarction, characterized by damage to the heart muscle.

Suit Would Halt Bradley Integration

WARREN, Ark. (AP) — A group of parents filed suit in Chancery Court here Wednesday seeking to stop total integration of elementary school in District 1 of Bradley County Sept. 3.

The suit seeks a temporary injunction to halt a plan adopted by the school board July 30.

The plan calls for all students in grades one through four in East Side Elementary School and all students in grades five and six in previously Negro West Side Elementary School.

Robert C. Vittitow, attorney for the plaintiffs, said the suit was filed because it was too late to implement the school board plan this year.

He said teachers would have to be reassigned and classes rescheduled if the board plan stands up.

The district has been using the freedom-of-choice plan.

Life In Arkansas

By TOMMY YATES
Associated Press Writer
Some things which may have gone unnoticed:

The average woman uses up her height in lipstick every five years. The waistline of the average elephant is 114 feet. One man in three uses deodorant.

An opossum at birth is no bigger than a green pea. Every ninth American owns corporate stock. The giraffe's heart is two feet long, has walls three inches thick in parts and it weighs 25 pounds.

From the top of the Empire State Building, a person with good vision can make out something as small as a rabbit, but a Hawk could distinguish a mouse.

Traffic, you say? J. R. McKinley of the De Queen Citizen says nothing is as frustrating as trying to get out of traffic in Fayetteville after a football game.

He said the best policy is to allocate two hours for getting out of the parking lot, then another pair of hours for the congestion to work itself out.

Then, travel, otherwise, those ulcers will act up on you.

For a pet peeve, how about this:

It's the fellow who decides to pass another car on a freeway, then decides at the last second he doesn't want to step it up that fast. He slows down to the speed of the other car, and they travel along side-by-side, mile after mile as traffic stacks up behind them.

Don't Use Brush

When pretreating stains on durable press materials, use fingers to rub in thick soap suds. Do not use a brush, even soft bristles may rough up the surface of these no-iron fabrics.

Mr. Bednara is a 1964 graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Illinois and was a member of Theta Xi fraternity. He is currently working on his Masters' Degree at St. Louis University. He is a certified public accountant for Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co., St. Louis.

SWEET GIRL GOSSIPS
Dear Helen: If it was just "John likes Betty who likes Jim" stuff, we wouldn't mind, but this crowd of girl gossips is vicious. A girl doesn't date, and likes sports? It's whispered she's "One of THOSE—watch out for her."

Likewise, a shy girl with a speech problem is having a tough enough time without being called a pansy.

I won't go into the times they have voiced around that girl is out of town for a "you know what" operation. So of course the next person to repeat it ways "abortion."

The worst thing they did was get gossip started that a fellow with some acne sores around his mouth had gonorrhea, which you could catch if you kissed him.

The horrible part is people on the spot can't make a fuss, because that just spreads the talk further and more believe it, it's hard to really prove who starts these tales, but we know because we used to be in "the group" before we got fed up.

Since they'll probably start on us next, what can we do to stop them?—TWO GIRLS AGAINST GOSSIP

Dear Girls: Try sneaky sympathy. Get it around that you feel terribly sorry for these poor sex-obsessed girls because they keep showing their ignorance—about venereal diseases, homosexuality, other things they're fascinated with but don't quite understand. And use as an example their whisper that an acne sore on the face was "gonorrhea." There's a million-to-one chance it might be a syphilis "pimple," but never "G," whose symptoms are quite different!

Never miss a chance to show up "the dumb club" with true facts, and always smile pityingly when you do it. If others join you—and they will—the bad rumor gals will soon get the listening they deserve.—H

Dear Helen: My problem is privacy.

We have a small house which has had additions from time to time, so it isn't well planned. My bedroom has three doors, one to the den, one to the bathroom and one to the kitchen. As we have no hall, everybody goes through my room to get anywhere in the house.

I don't really mind this so much, except that my father comes through my room on the way to the bathroom with nothing on but his undershorts. I think he could put on a robe, but he won't bother. My mother says "Don't look," but that's not the point. Shouldn't he have more respect for me?—A SENIOR SEEKING PRIVACY
Dear Senior: He should! How, ever, I have a better suggestion. Why don't you and your parents trade bedrooms? Seems to me a room which opens on the kitchen, den and bathroom is much handier for them than for you.—H

Dear Helen: There are six of us who like the same boy. He's cute, but most people think he's ugly because he has slightly buck teeth and so-called porcupine hair. But he has a great personality.

How can we convince other people that he isn't that bad, and how can he be divided among us six?—N.S.D.T.R. AND C.

Dear Girls: For Pete's sake don't convince any MORE people—this kid has an oversupply of girls already!

Second question: Before you slice him six ways, I'm quite sure he'll choose a favorite and she may even be Number Seven.—H

Creation of New City Is Part of Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Creation of a new city of Dardanelle alongside the president old Arkansas River town is part of the Ozarks Regional Commission's proposed program.

Ray Taylor, director of the West Central Arkansas Economic Development District Inc., a nonprofit organization representing 10 counties, mentioned the project at a commission meeting here Wednesday.

Taylor said the project, now in the talking stage, is to get planning funds from the Ozarks Commission. With this financing, the project will get under way.

"This will be a pilot project unique to the nation," Taylor said. "We will lay out a completely new city of Dardanelle. It will be the ideal city from social and economic viewpoints."

The director said both public and private funds would be used to finance the project. The government of the present city of about 2,500 population may use federal Urban Renewal and similar funds to redevelop areas it wants to save of the old town.

A trading post was operated in 1819 on the site of the present city, which was platted in 1843. During the Civil War, it was occupied different times by both the Union and Confederate forces.

Also discussed at the Wednesday commission meeting was how more tourist dollars could be drawn to the 134 counties of the Ozarks Regional Commission area in Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — By the time the Republican National Convention worked around Wednesday night to the first demonstration after the first nomination speech for a presidential candidate, the two television networks by implication had conceded the nomination to Richard M. Nixon.

They already had shifted their primary attention from the selection of a presidential candidate to a vice presidential candidate.

As they had for the perfunctory oratory of the first two days, CBS and NBC—in their gavel-to-gavel coverage—paid minimal attention to the favorite-son nominating speeches. The floor reporters wormed their way around the convention hall, interspersing interviews with wives and families of prominent men along with purely political interviews.

A favorite question—completely unanswerable—was, "How do you feel about all this?"

It was all pretty sluggish until balloting time. The hard working staffs, from anchormen to the technicians behind the cameras, tried every device to keep things moving. There were jaunty commentary, experiments with off-beat camera angles and studies of delegates—dozing off, eating, talking.

Distressing to both CBS and NBC has been the cool reaction of the general public to their superior efforts. Overnight audience ratings taken indicate that NBC has had over-all a slight edge in the number of viewers and that ABC has increased its audience with its nightly wrap-ups of convention coverage.

But the ratings also showed that only about one of every three TV sets in the country has been tuned to the big show in Miami Beach.

Presumably the other two sets were bringing entertainment programs from local stations—or were turned off.
The intensive coverage, however, has been a cram course in modern politics for those who did tune in. The down-to-earth interpretation of knowledgeable commentators out through the florid prose of the speakers, it pointed up what CBS' Roger Mudd at one point called efforts to get "sleazy publicity," presumably meaning delegates' efforts to slip in little plugs for their home states.

Two Hitters Haven't Got the Word Yet

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Joe Keough and Dave Campbell obviously haven't been around long enough to adjust to 1968's Great Hit Famine.

Keough of Oakland and Campbell of Detroit had a total of six major league at bats between them before Wednesday—all of them belonging to the Tiger infielder.

Today they both have their home runs and Keough, fourth member of Oakland's Arizona State Alumni Association, also has a small spot in baseball's record book.

Keough, called up from the minor leagues earlier this week, became the 37th player to hit a homer in his first big league at bat—the 10th one to do it as a pinch hitter—and helped Oakland defeat the New York Yankees 4-3 in the second game of a Wednesday doubleheader. New York took the opener 3-0.

Campbell, playing in his sixth game, and first as a starter for the Tigers, tagged his first major league hit—a homer naturally—as Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-1.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Boston clipped Chicago 3-2, California dropped Washington 4-2 and Baltimore swept a doubleheader from Minnesota 3-0 and 9-6. Detroit also completed a 5-2 victory over Cleveland in a game suspended after eight innings Tuesday night.

In the National League, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 4-3, Houston edged New York 4-3, Atlanta pounded Chicago 10-2, St. Louis topped Cincinnati 3-1 and Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 6-2.

Keough, like teammates Rick Monday, Sal Bando and Reggie Jackson, came to the A's off the Arizona State campus, and was batting .303 at Birmingham of the Southern League when Oakland sold Floyd Robinson to Boston last week and Keough came up.

He got his first major league swing in the eighth inning of the second game with Oakland trailing 3-2 and tagged a Lindy McDaniel pitch into Yankee Stadium's right field seats. That tied the score and two innings later, Jackson, not to be outdone by his old school chum, singled Oakland's winning run home.

In the rain-delayed opener, Mel Stottlemyre won his 15th on a six-hitter with Joe Pepitone's two-run homer providing all the offense he needed.

Campbell's first homer was somewhat less dramatic than Keough's. It came in the eighth inning with the Tigers already enjoying a 4-1 edge.

Detroit packed three runs in the first inning—two of them on Bill Freehan's double. Earl Wilson, with late-inning help from Gary Patterson, won his 10th and Willie Horton clubbed his 47th home run.

Reliever John Wyatt retired the Indians in the ninth inning of the suspended game to nail down the 5-2 victory.

Ken Harrelson whacked his 29th homer—a two-run shot that led Boston past Chicago. The blow keyed a three-run first inning for the Red Sox and gave Dick Ellsworth enough working room for his 11th victory.

Harrelson, taking dead aim at the Triple Crown, now leads the American League in batting with a .297 mark, in runs batted in with 93 and is second only to Washington's Frank Howard in homers.

Howard smashed his 32nd but it couldn't prevent California from taking Washington. Chuck Hinton, an ex-Senator, did most

Rookie Bats Braves to Victory

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Young George Stone, two days away from his 22nd birthday, just might have nailed down a permanent job at Atlanta, which is a lot closer to his home town of Ruston, La., than, say, Montreal or San Diego.

"He looked real good to me," Atlanta manager Luman Harris said after the rookie lefty pitched and batted the Braves to a 10-2 victory over Chicago Wednesday night.

"We've got to give him another look or two before deciding on whether to protect him in the draft or not."

Stone, making only his second start of the season, drove in three runs, limited Chicago to six hits, struck out five and walked only one.

"I'd say he passed with flying colors," Harris said. The league leading St. Louis Cardinals whipped Cincinnati 3-1, Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 6-2 in a late night game, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 4-3 in a day game and Houston fought off the New York Mets in a game marred by a brawl.

In the American League, Detroit completed a 5-2 victory over Cleveland in a game suspended Tuesday night, then clipped the Indians 6-1 in the regular game. Baltimore won twice, beating Minnesota 3-0 and 9-6 while Oakland and the New York Yankees split a pair, the Yanks winning 3-0 before losing 4-3 in 10 innings. Boston edged Chicago 3-2 and California took Washington 4-2.

Stone had trouble only with Jim Hickman and Ernie Banks, who hit solo home runs for the Cubs.

And it was his single up the middle with the bases loaded that drove in two runs and broke Ken Holtzman's scoreless inning string at 28. He also singled in a run in the Braves' clinching, five-run seventh inning.

"He's a young man with a good future," Harris said. "We'll have to see some more of him," as reference to the expansion draft to stock the two new teams in Montreal and San Diego.

Ron Fairly and Bob Bailey each drove in two runs and Don Sutton scattered eight hits in Los Angeles' victory over Pittsburgh. Sutton had a five-hitter going into the ninth, when he weakened and finished with an eight-hitter. Donn Clendenon had a homer for the Pirates.

The league leading Cardinals, delayed in starting one hour and 20 minutes by rain, consumed only 1:56 in whipping Cincinnati. It put them 14 games ahead of the pack and dropped Cincinnati from second to fourth.

Tim McCarver singled in a Cardinal run in the first and they made it 3-0 in the fifth on doubles by Bobby Tolan and Orlando Cepeda and a single by Phil Cagliano. Pete Rose homered for the losers.

A brawl broke out after Rader's slide flattened the Mets' third baseman, Kevin Collins. Both teams rushed to the field and individual battles broke out all over the place before police helped restore order.

The Mets threatened with two out in the ninth before Steve Shea put out the fire.

Willie McCovey's second home run of the game, and 28th of the season won it for the Giants against Philadelphia. His first of the game and helped build a 3-1 edge, but the Phils tied it in the eighth in four singles.

No Revolt of Golfers This Year

NEW YORK (AP) — There won't be any revolt of tournament pros against the parent Professional Golfers Association, not this year at least.

"There will be no boycott," said Sam Gates, who represents the touring pros. "We are going to play straight through."

Gates, a New York lawyer, made his statement Wednesday night in Akron, Ohio, after a closed meeting with more than 100 golfers in Akron to compete in the American Golf Classic.

Before the meeting Gardner Dickinson, chairman of the four-man Players Tournament Committee, had termed the situation "grave." The players reportedly are seeking the right to run the $5.6 million tour without interference from the PGA.

"We want to resolve this thing within the framework of the PGA constitution," Gates said. He planned to meet in New York sometime today with Bill Rogers, the PGA course. No time was set, however, and the meeting may be put off for a day or two.

"I haven't anything I can say in the way of a concrete program in the future until I talk to Rogers," Gates said. "We have to have some amendments to the constitution."

The latest threat of a break between the touring pros and the PGA developed Tuesday after an 11-hour meeting between player representatives and the PGA Tournament Committee.

Gates said an impasse developed when the players and the PGA committee deadlocked 4-4 on a resolution by the pros urging a separate sectional play for the touring players.

A counterproposal by the PGA committee was not acceptable to the players, Gates said. Neither Gates nor Dickinson would disclose the nature of the PGA counter proposal.

Leo Fraser of Atlantic City, N.J., secretary of the PGA and slated to succeed Max Elbin of Washington, D.C. as the next PGA president, declared "I don't know what the players want. We can't go any farther than we have. We cannot give the tour away."

Gates said he "has" recommended that the players consider selection of a commissioner to run their affairs and have complete control of the tour. The PGA has rejected this idea.

Arkansas Team Eliminated
ABBEVILLE, La. (AP) — West Texas and Arkansas were eliminated Wednesday from the Southwest Regional Babe Ruth baseball tournament in third round play.

The West Texas squad, from Dumas, was edged by East Texas, 4-3, with Lupe Pompea driving in the winning run with a blooper single in the sixth. Abbeville eliminated the Arkansas team from Arkadelphia, 2-1, in an extra inning struggle which ended when Russell Broussard doubled in the eighth, moved from shortstop to a fielder's choice and scored on Jeff Broussard's single.

The Italians seem to favor the Napoleonic maxim that luck is on the side of the heaviest artillery, but on today's hand we had the artillery and a misfire at the crucial moment cost us the battle.

Our West opened a diamond at the first table and Forquet and Garrozzo of Italy worked their way up to a nice comfortable three clubs and made five.

Avarelli passed at the second table and Norman Kay and Edgar Kaplan reached five clubs in two bids.

West's diamond lead fell to dummy's ace and the eight of clubs lost to West's ace. The diamond return was ruffed and a trump led to dummy's queen.

South's next play was to ruff a third diamond. East discarded a low heart and Norman Kay noted that West, who had passed as dealer, had already shown up with six diamonds to the queen-10 and the ace of clubs. It looked as if East would hold the ace of spades, but Kay led a spade toward dummy any way. West played the jack and dummy's queen held the trick. Sitting in an easy chair at home we can see the ace of spades in the West hand, but Norman was sitting at a card table in France and no one showed him that ace.

He returned to his hand by ruffing the last diamond and, after mature deliberation, decided that the heart finesse offered a better chance of success than a second spade lead. He tried it and went down one.

If anyone thinks for one moment that we intend this hand as unfavorable criticism of Kay and Kaplan, let us point out that their bidding was magnificent. Nine pairs out of 10 would have been in three no-trump, going down two or three tricks. They avoided this trap, reached the right contract and finally went down when Norman made the same play that almost any expert would have made.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

One-Person-Command Best
In Survival Situation

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Yesterday, I touched on the importance of equanimity and preparation in meeting an unexpected emergency. In a survival situation, one must remember that comfort is not essential. With a strong will to live a man can put up with pain, hunger, thirst, dirt, itching, heat, cold and weariness. Those who succeed against such odds are those who believe in their own worth and who accept disaster as something to be met with a calm determination to survive.

The chances of family survival are greatly enhanced if one person takes command. He should make a work schedule that will give no one any time for brooding. He should not conceal the truth about the gravity of the situation but he should inspire hope and dispel fear and feelings of self-pity.

A great boon to survival is a knowledge of which parts of what wild plants can be safely eaten. Grass, although low in food value, is good for stopping the pangs of hunger and for its vitamins A, B and C.

There are 13 common plants that are often ignored by a starving man that could keep him alive indefinitely. They are arrowroot, purslane, ground cherry, water lily, pigweed, knotweed (avoid the root), dock, hibiscus, hollyhock, rose, sunflower, cattail and plantain.

Q—What is the cause of histoplasmosis? How does it affect one? Is there any cure for it?

A—This is an infection with the fungus, Histoplasma capsulatum. When it lodges in the lungs it causes prolonged fever, shortness of breath, chest pain, loss of weight and weakness. It closely resembles tuberculosis. More rarely it causes ulcers of the mouth. Treatment with the antibiotic, amphotericin B, is effective for all types of this disease.

Q—Is it true that a regular ration of iodine makes the hair thicker? What foods are high in iodine?

A—Iodine is one of the elements essential to the body, but one milligram a week is enough to supply all the body's needs. If it made one's hair thicker, thinning of the hair would be no problem in this country with its heavy consumption of iodized salt. Iodine is present in most seafoods but supplemental doses of iodides must be used with great caution or iodine poisoning will result.

Jet Player Too Far Out of Shape

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
In a crash diet, the New York Jets dropped 330 pounds in one day—and all of them belonged to Sherman Plunkett.
The rotund offensive tackle had played in every game — 70 of them — in the Jets' history in the American Football League but he ate himself out of it.
"We just had to let him go," Coach Weeb Eubank said of the 34-year-old, 11-year pro football veteran who carries his 330 pounds over a 6-foot-2 frame. "He got too far out of shape."
"Sherman was one of the greatest offensive linemen I've ever coached," added Eubank, who coached Plunkett at Baltimore in the National League. "He rivals Jim Parker, Lou Rymkus and Winston Hill."
But Eubank still ordered Plunkett to report to training camp at 300 pounds. Plunkett, however, came in at 337 and managed to lose only seven pounds and his starting job to 6-6, 270-pound rookie Sam Walton of East Texas State.
Plunkett asked to be placed on waivers and is hopeful he can catch on with another team.
Another big offensive tackle, Walt Rock of San Francisco of the NFL, is having geographical problems.
The 6-5, 265-pounder with five years in the league said he might retire at the age of 26 unless he is traded to Baltimore or Washington.
Rock said he has taken over his late father-in-law's prosperous garage door business on the East Coast, but is bound to the 49ers by the option clause of a two-year contract he signed in 1966.
He said that the 49ers told him before he signed they would work out a trade, but now say Washington is "offering only trash for me."
"I read that Otto Graham, the Washington general manager, says he would like to have me but that the 49ers want too much for me."
"I am not a holdout and I am not 'playing' out my option because you can not 'sit' out the option year; you have to 'play' it out by joining the team. I had to 'retire.'"

Montreal Is Rocked by Franchise Loss

MONTREAL (AP) — This city's volatile baseball situation was rocked late Wednesday night by the reported loss of a third financial backer of the new National League franchise.
Robert Irsay, a Chicago air-conditioning executive, was said to have pulled out his support, leaving still greater financial problems for city officials and remaining backers to solve.
A meeting is scheduled at 5 p.m. EDT this evening to search for those solutions.
The Montreal Gazette said Charles Bronfman of Montreal, another backer, said Irsay severed his financial connection with the franchise in a telegram to Bronfman.
Irsay would be the third backer to withdraw. J. Louis Levesque of Montreal and March Bougie of Montreal preceded him.
Bronfman told the newspaper he got Irsay's telegram before a four-hour meeting Wednesday in Montreal Mayor Jean Drapeau's office attended by Warren Giles, president of the league, city officials and two Canadian sponsors of the Montreal franchise.
Contents of the telegram, Bronfman said were kept secret from all but those who attended the meeting. He divulged the telegram's content only after being told of comments Irsay is said to have made in Chicago Wednesday to Chicago newspapers and radio stations.
Irsay also is said to have told interviewers that Bronfman and the other Canadian sponsors were pulling out.
The other sponsors are Lorne Webster, Sidney Malsin and John Newman.
Bronfman told the Gazette Irsay's reported statements are "irresponsible ... and quite shocking."
He denied that he intends to pull out of the group. Reached by telephone early today, both Malsin and Newman said they had no comment.
Bronfman said another financial backer easily could be found to replace Irsay.
Neither side would disclose what problems were discussed in Wednesday's meeting, but it is believed that stadium facilities dominated the lengthy discussion.
Giles came out of the meeting almost an hour before Mayor Drapeau and Bronfman and said the city and the backers have to work out a lease for the 25,000-seat Autostade "and it's not appropriate that I be there."
Plans to put a roof over the Autostade, built for Expo 67, is "close to being rejected," the mayor said. "It would be too costly for its purpose, if it could be done for a cheaper price, it would be all right."
Giles didn't appear overjoyed with results of the day's meetings after he came out of the mayor's office and prepared to fly back to New York. He said there wasn't as much accomplished as he would have liked.
He added he thought there would be a Montreal baseball franchise, "but, they have until Aug. 15."

Four Teams Advance in Tournament

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—Blytheville, Helena, Arkhola of Little Rock and Fort Smith Kerwin were opening games here Wednesday in the state American Legion baseball tournament.
Mose Turner and Lynn Parnell cracked home runs for Searcy but it was not enough as Blytheville took a 10-6 victory in the opening game.
Kerwin had three-run outbursts in the second, fourth and seventh innings in rolling over North Little Rock DeJans 11-5. Kerwin pounded out 15 hits off three DeJans pitchers.
John Sawatski tripled in a ninth inning run as Arkhola clipped Russellville 5-3 behind the seven-hit pitching of J. T. Bradberry. Russellville took an early 3-0 lead but Arkhola tied the game with a three-run rally in the sixth.
In the final game of the night, Helena erupted for five runs in the fourth inning and held on for a 9-7 victory over Pine Bluff, which led 4-2 going into the fifth.
In today's games, Searcy plays DeJans, Russellville plays Pine Bluff, Blytheville plays Kerwin and Arkhola plays Helena in the double elimination tournament.
Searcy 102 000 300- 6 6 3
DeJans 100 000 040- 5 7 0

Record Price Is Paid for Young Yearling

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — Sales records fell at the Saratoga yearlings sales Wednesday night when a dark bay filly by Hall To Reason from Cosmah brought $225,000 to be the highest sold of 65 yearlings for a total $1,988,100 an average of $30,586.
It was the largest amount expended in a single evening during 48 seasons of yearling sales at Saratoga, the highest average and a record high for a yearling, colt or filly.
The Hall To Reason filly was purchased by J. E. Burch of Elmont, N.Y., as agent for an undisclosed buyer. The Burch acquisition was consigned by John R. Gaines' Gainesway Farm of Lexington, Ky.

New Packer Coach Is Man on the Spot

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Phil Bengtson is a man on the spot.
For the new Green Bay Packers' coach, there seems to be only one way to go, and that's down. But the sages who are predicting the demise of the Packers aren't taking into consideration Bengtson's philosophy. He believes in the status quo.
"We won't be satisfied with anything less than No. 4," Bengtson says, referring to the Packers' three consecutive National Football League championships.
Vince Lombardi stepped out of the coaching post after leading the Packers to six NFL titles and to two consecutive Super Bowl crowns. In nine years, Lombardi's teams won 141 games, lost 39 and tied four, including both preseason and postseason clashes.
Bengtson, who came to Green Bay with Lombardi as his top assistant, has been the quiet man in the background who has shaped the vaunted Packer defense. Last season, the Pack led the NFL in seven defensive categories, not to mention over-all team defense.
Willie Davis, 6-foot-3 and 245 pounds, and Lionel Aldridge, 6-4 by 245, anchor the defensive line. Ron Kostelnik at 6-4, 240, and Henry Jordan, 6-3, 250, provide an agile, mobile and hostile interior.
Top draft choice Fred Carr, 6-5, 240, will get a shot at tight end.
The linebackers, considered the finest trio in football, are Dave Robinson, 6-3 and 245; Ray Nitschke, 6-3, 240, and Lee Roy Caffey, 6-3, 250.
Both Herb Adderly, 6-1, 210, starting his eighth year, and six-year veteran Bob Jeter, 6-1, 205, have been All-Pro picks at cornerback. Willie Wood, 5-10, 190, is another All-NFL performer at safety, aided by five-year veteran Tom Brown, 6-1, 190.
Offensively, the Packers are just as strong.
Quarterback Bart Starr has no peers. Even in what admittedly was an off-year in 1967, Starr completed 54.8 per cent of his passes for 1,823 yards and nine touchdowns.
In last week's College All-Star Game, Starr hit 17-of-23, including 10 in a row, and was "unusually sharp," according to Bengtson.
When injuries slowed the former Alabama star, 13-year vet Zeke Bratkowski came off the bench and did his usual competent job.
With super back Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor no longer around, super brats Donny Anderson, 6-3, 215, and Jim Grabowski, 6-2, 220, took up the slack. Grabowski and running back Elijah Pitts, 6-1, 205, showed no signs of last year's injuries in the All-Star contest.
Bengtson can also call on fullbacks Ben Wilson and Chuck Mercein and speedster Travis Williams, better known as The Road Runner. Last season, Williams returned four kickoffs for touchdowns, including two against the Cleveland Browns in a single quarter.
Up front, where it counts, Bob Hyland, 6-5, 250, and Ken Bowman, 6-3, 235, will battle it out for the center spot. Whoever wins will be flanked by All-Pro Jerry Kramer, 6-3, 245, and Gale Gillingham, 6-3 by 255, at guards. Bill Lueck, 6-3, 235, also a first-round draft pick, is bidding for a backup spot at guard.
The tackle positions will be manned by Bob Skoronski, 6-3, 250, and 12-year veteran Forrest Gregg, 6-4, 250.
If Starr chooses to move through the air, he can utilize the talents of veteran split end Boyd Dowler, 6-5, 230; flanker Carroll Dale, 6-2, 200; their replacement, Bob Long, 6-3, 190, or tight end Marv Fleming.
Then there's the Packer pride, that intangible that separates champions from second-place finishers.
"There's only one way to go," Bengtson says, "Four in a row. It's unheard of, but I see no reason why we can't continue winning."

Top draft choice Fred Carr, 6-5, 240, will get a shot at tight end.

Will Support Nixon, Says Rockefeller

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller promised today to support Richard M. Nixon on the campaign trail this fall.

But he shunned any suggestion he might team with him as a running mate and said, "Are you talking about a spot on the ticket? Don't spend the time."

Rockefeller, now 60, met his third straight defeat in his pursuit of the presidency with his chin up at a pre-dawn news conference.

"I said I would support whoever was the nominee of the convention," he said. "You don't support somebody unless you campaign for him."

The New York governor congratulated Nixon by telephone on what Rockefeller called his "spectacular success" in capturing the GOP presidential nomination on the first ballot early today. "I wish him all the success in winning the election in November," Rockefeller said.

It was the second time Rockefeller watched as Nixon won the prize he had sought. In 1960 Rockefeller stopped short when he saw a convention showdown would be futile. In 1964 the New Yorker refused to campaign for Barry M. Goldwater who whipped him in the California primary and swept a convention that booed Rockefeller when he spoke.

But Rockefeller said he felt his three campaigns, his 10 years as governor of New York had left its mark of moderation on the party, particularly its platform this year. He pronounced the future of the Republican party as bright.

Rockefeller had pinned his strategy to stopping Nixon 100 votes short of victory on the first ballot, then going on to win over Nixon and California Gov. Ronald Reagan on the fourth or fifth roll call. "It looks like I didn't count properly," he said.

"I think there was slippage during the course of the evening," he said. "I ran about 75 votes short of what I thought I was going to get. Mr. Reagan ran about 100 votes short of what I hoped he was going to get. And that was the ball game."

Rockefeller added, "I think this convention genuinely preferred 'Dick' Nixon and the same was true for the leadership of the party. It's as simple as that."

Would Rockefeller run again? He remembered he said he wouldn't in 1964 and smiled, "I've stopped making predictions."

Rockefeller's backers were bleak. An aide, Joseph Boyd, said, "You work hard to win, and when you don't, it's rough."

Press secretary Leslie Slato said he had no idea what the governor's schedule would be today. "We hadn't planned on this," he said.

Crawfordsville Ordered to Integrate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge Gordon E. Young ordered the Crawfordsville School Board Wednesday to file a plan by Dec. 15 for combining its 1,054 Negro students and 217 white students into one school system.

Young, in handing down his decision, said he realized the impact it would have on patrons in the district but that under the U.S. Supreme Court May 27 decision he had no choice.

The district is to continue its freedom-of-choice plan for the 1968-69 school year.

Crawfordsville, a farming community 20 miles west of Memphis, operates the predominantly white Crawfordsville School, which had an enrollment of 217 white pupils and 27 Negroes last year, and the McNeill School, which was attended by 944 Negroes.

The district also will be absorbing 83 Negro students this fall from Phelix (Negro) School in the adjoining Marion School District. Young told the board to assign them to the predominantly white school.

"The classes at McNeill School are overcrowded," Young said. "Conversely, most of the classes at the Crawfordsville School are not full to capacity."

Court records showed that teachers in the elementary grades at McNeill School had from 29 to 35 students in their classes last year while those in the elementary school at Crawfordsville School had 18 to 28.

About 50 white Crawfordsville residents, including all five board members, attended the might be a necessity for one for new programs.

Crank also said he was the best qualified to bring all elements of the party together to make a united challenge of the Republicans in the general election.

Crank also got two endorsements Wednesday.

J. Bill Becker, president of the Arkansas State AFL-CIO, said his organization's Committee on Political Education voted in favor of Crank over Mrs. Johnson.

Then a joint committee of the Arkansas Education Association and the Arkansas Teachers Association announced its endorsement of Crank.

Mrs. Johnson also continued with her five-minute political telecasts Wednesday night.

She appealed to the voters who backed the defeated candidates in the July 30 primary, saying that any one of them "would have made a much more competent governor than the present one."

Mrs. Johnson continued linking Crank to the "old guard," saying the "same old political bosses, the same old ward heilers, the same old patronage peddlers" are in the ranks of the supporters of Crank.

She criticized Crank for being "the chief sponsor of special interest legislation."

She said his supporters knew Crank was "the House sponsor for a bill to give his employer's fertilizer company the power to take your property for private use so as to permit the construction of pipe lines to furnish his private customers in far away places."

Mrs. Johnson said she proposed prison reform that "will be a deterrent to crime without losing sight of rehabilitation," and a program designed to "let us live within our income."

desegregation hearing.

"It will ruin our town," one man said. Others agreed.

Young, sympathizing with the board, said he was aware "of discrepancies in educational achievement" between Negro and white students in a rural environment and that it "poses a considerable educational problem."

"But the Supreme Court has said that as well as other intangible factors must give way and bow to the concepts of integration," Young said. "I have no discretion in that regard."

Cambodia Will Not Free U.S. Boat

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk said today he will not free a U.S. Army boat and its 11-man crew, captured July 17, unless the United States gives Cambodia 14 bulldozers and takes responsibility for a helicopter attack on a frontier village that he declared killed 14 Cambodians.

The ruler of Cambodia, speaking at a news conference, said otherwise "I will keep them until the end of the Vietnam war, unless a very important event occurs in the United States giving Cambodia the occasion to free the prisoners." He did not elaborate.

Cambodia claims a U.S. helicopter attacked the Cambodian village of Svayanhong June 28. The American boat was captured when it allegedly violated Cambodian waters.

Michigan Turning Point for Nixon

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — As the Republican National Convention roll call began, Richard M. Nixon spread a tally sheet across a battered brown briefcase resting in his lap.

He jotted down each state delegation's vote as it was broadcast over the color television set in the circular penthouse sitting room, an aide said later.

The list of states yet to be called grew shorter and Nixon's vote total grew larger.

Then, in Convention Hall three miles away, Wisconsin Gov. Warren P. Knowles stepped to a floor microphone and, shouting above the exploding din, cast the votes that made Nixon the Republican presidential nominee.

"Knowles did it," the 55-year-old former vice president said as he turned in his swivel chair to smile at his wife, two daughters, future son-in-law and eight aides who had joined him in the 18th-floor hotel suite.

But the night of victory was not without tension. After hearing his name placed in nomination, the candidate became so restive that he ducked out of the hotel for a half-hour automobile ride through the muggy Florida night.

An aide said Nixon hadn't been outside the hotel since Monday and wanted "to stretch his legs and get some fresh air." Chatting with two reporters who accompanied him in the baby blue limousine, Nixon said he does not expect to finish his acceptance speech until just before he goes to the convention floor tonight.

Congratulatory telephone calls began pouring in within minutes after he was nominated. One came from Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, his chief rival in the campaign. Another was from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democrat whom Nixon may oppose in the November general election.

Then began a series of meetings with aides, friends, congressional leaders and party officials.

One of the first to arrive at his headquarters was Barry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP nominee. Stepping off an elevator, Goldwater said the convention vote went as expected.

"I hit it right on the nose, and I made a bundle," Goldwater said. "I'm going to teach those guys not to bet me."

Arkansas' Delegation Was Noisy

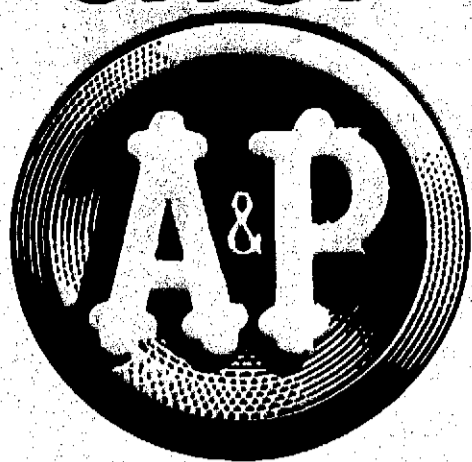

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The band struck up "Arkansas Traveler" and the state's delegation staged a noisy, 10-minute demonstration for Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Wednesday night as his name was placed before the Republican National Convention as a favorite son presidential candidate.

Delegates from several states joined in the demonstration, carrying green-and-white placards boosting "Win Rockefeller for President."

The delegation pledged itself to support Rockefeller as a favorite son on the first ballot. Cass S. Hough of Rogers delivered the nominating speech and the Rev. M. L. Hendricks of Little Rock, only Negro member of the delegation, and Mrs. Dorothy Stuck of Marked Tree delivered seconding speeches.

The delegates put off a preference poll until the second ballot.

Legal Hassle Over Ruling in Hawkins Case

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)— A legal hassle appears to be in the making over the ruling that forced Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins to pay $10,082 to the county treasury.

Circuit Court Judge Bobby Steel of Nashville ruled last month that Hawkins legally had not accounted for the funds during the trial of a taxpayer suit here that originally alleged Hawkins had misappropriated more than $200,000 in county funds.

Attorneys for Hawkins filed a cross-appeal of Steel's ruling, and in a separate action, his attorneys also filed a motion contending some points of the ruling against Hawkins were wrong and should be corrected.

Earlier, plaintiffs had filed notice of appeal of the same ruling.

The timing of the moves by Hawkins' attorneys, however, may trigger a legal hassle.

The moves by Hawkins' attorneys Tuesday in Chancery Court here came 31 days after the date of the rulings.

Steel dated his ruling last July 6, but copies of it sent in the mail were not received by the court in Morrilton, nor by opposing attorneys, until July 8. The law provides 30 days for appeals of rulings.

Jack L. Lessenberry of Little Rock, one of Hawkins' attorneys, filed the appeal and the motion, each of which specified Steel's ruling was "entered in this cause" July 8, the date it was received by the court and two days after the date given on the ruling itself.

Neither Hawkins' attorneys nor the attorneys for the plaintiffs have specified the grounds on which they will contest Steel's ruling, but they have several weeks to do so.

Lessenberry's motion said that Steel should have allowed Hawkins additional credit of $2,188.94 under the system of proof Steel decreed would be used in the trial. The motion said Hawkins believes Steel "failed to include the credits... by inadvertence rather than purposely excluding these credits."

Steel said in his ruling that he was "convinced" that Hawkins "performed his duties as sheriff in good faith, but in his bookkeeping and accounting methods has failed to establish in this case that certain payments claimed to have been made by him were in accordance with the governing statutes."

Lessenberry's motion said $2,188.94 in payments which Hawkins and other witnesses said had been made are not mentioned in the records of the justices of the peace and Hawkins therefore should be allowed credit for this amount.

Of the $10,082 Hawkins paid, $3,061 was partial payments on cases pending before the justices of the peace.

The motion said Steel's ruling in this matter was improper and that it was the role of the justices of the peace to order the disposition of these cases.

The motion said the $3,061 should be either held in escrow or held by Hawkins subject to the final orders of the justices of the peace of the county court.

If the court prefers an alternative, the motion said the $3,061 should be excluded from the sum for which Steel said Hawkins had failed to legally account.

Sen. Fulbright Just Short of 53 Per Cent

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— The certified vote from the Democratic primary July 30 showed that Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., received 52.9 per cent of the vote.

The certified returns to the secretary of state's office Wednesday showed Fulbright receiving 220,684 votes, Jim Johnson 132,038, Bobby K. Hayes 52,906 and Foster Johnson 11,395 in the Senate race.

Certified totals in the lieutenant governor's race had Bill Wells with 150,720 votes, Kenneth Collett 77,373, Julian James 68,741, Bill Herndon 49,765 and Gilbert Leigh 35,037.

Mrs. Nancy Hall received 290,523 and Larry Henslee 105,568 in the state treasurer's race.

Frank Holt received 255,304 votes in the race for Pos. 5 on the state Supreme Court. Lawrence Dawson had 79,954 and Thomas Butt 63,041.

Votes in the governor's race and the 1st District congressional race were certified Monday.

The party will have one runoff for prosecuting attorney and five runoffs for nominations to the Arkansas House Tuesday.

Dave Kane and Bob Dawson are in a runoff for Pos. 10 and Bert O. Miller and John I. Purdie for Pos. 11 in District 22, which is Pulaski and Perry counties.

Wayne N. Courtney and Bob Nimocks are in a runoff for Pos. 2 in District 27, which is St. Francis County.

Carl Fowler and James R. Teague are in a runoff in District 32, which is Hot Spring and Saline counties.

Boye Alford and Odie Clark are in a runoff for Pos. 2 in District 33, which is Grant and Jefferson counties.

The prosecutor's race in Washington County will match Richard A. Wells and Maylon G. Gibson.

Manslaughter Charge Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Deputy Prosecutor James R. Howard Wednesday filed a charge of manslaughter against Bruce McCortley, a trusty at the Pulaski County Penal Farm, in connection with the death of Curtis Ingram Jr., 18, an inmate.

Howard said a two-day investigation revealed two different accounts of how Ingram was killed.

Howard said Ingram died Friday after being struck on the head.

Report on Johnson Is Still to Come

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)— President Johnson is described by an aide as feeling fine but there is no indication when a public report on the physical checkup he is undergoing will come.

Such reports usually have been released about the time of each presidential birthday.

Johnson will be 60 Aug. 27.

Press secretary George Christian, announcing that Johnson would complete his physical in a brief visit to Brooke Army Medical Center today, said the President "feels fine."

But Christian told newsmen he did not know when the presidential doctor, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley, would issue a report.

Johnson began his checkup Tuesday with a five-hour visit to Brooke's extensive facilities at San Antonio, 75 miles from his ranch.

Mrs. Johnson, getting an examination of her own, remained at Brooke all the while. There was no immediate word on when she would wind up her stay.

Will Review Battalion

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt, Lt. Col. Ray House of Jonesboro and Maj. Gen. Charles H. Wilson of North Little Rock will review troops of the 875th Engineers Battalion of the Arkansas National Guard at Camp Robinson Saturday.

The 875th is composed of about 80 men with headquarters at Jonesboro. The battalion is on its annual tour of active duty.

House is battalion commander and Wilson is adjutant general of the guard.

Saenger Film Asks About Youths

Has youth become sole representative citizen? Asks author of film. We have simply given up our constitutionally guaranteed right to pursuit of happiness and are involved in a headlong retreat, contends noted author Robert Thom.

Our worship of youth has gotten out of hand when parents strive for approval and acceptance by their children rather than the other way around, in the opinion of the respected author and playwright discussion the emphasis placed on youth today.

With more than 52 per cent of the population of the country now less than 25 years of age, and only stumbling block to an immediate take over is the fact you have to be 21 in order to vote. However, it wouldn't take much effort on the part of the country's youth to stage a gaudy demonstration that would quickly frighten the legislators into allowing them the privilege according to Thom.

Wild In The Streets is a somewhat frightening story of what could happen right now and in the words of Thom, "It's rare in the history of Hollywood that the executive heads of a motion picture company will augment the heavy responsibilities of corporate affairs to personally produce a film project, but this is the case with American International's Wild In The Streets, a turbulent story of the rise of today's youth to a ruling position in National Affairs."

One Million Bales Cotton for Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Agriculture Department today estimated this year's cotton crop at 10,976,000 bales, up from 7,455,000 bales last year, which had the smallest crop since 1895.

The estimate for Arkansas this year was 1,073,000 bales, fourth-largest amount for any of the cotton-growing states.

Arkansas' acreage planted to cotton was estimated at 1,025,000, well above the 715,000 acres planted to cotton last year when federal cotton program regulations allowed greater portions of cotton farms to participate in the program.

Yield per acre for this year was estimated at 503 pounds, close to the state's average of 538 pounds, and well above last year's 333 pounds.

The 1967 crop yield per acre was low because the crop was late in maturing and then was hit by an early November freeze.

Bodies of 9 Miners Are Recovered

By HOWARD KERCHEVAL
Associated Press Writer
GREENVILLE, Ky. (AP)— Rescue workers began the slow process today of carrying out the bodies of nine miners reported killed Wednesday in a fiery explosion in a coal mine shaft near here.

A mine employee, who asked to remain unidentified, said the rescue workers had found eight bodies in one area of the mine. The body of the ninth miner was found nearby, he said.

The employee said it would take some time for the workers to bring the victims to the surface because the shaft area was small. The first body was discovered at about 4 a.m. EDT today—14 hours after the accident was reported.

Throughout the rescue operation and the reported finding of the bodies, mine officials, police and other authorities have refused to discuss the accident with newsmen.

The entire area leading to the River Queen mine entrance was cordoned off soon after the accident and newsmen have not been permitted in.

The mine, owned and operated by Peabody Coal Co., is just south of this small coal-mining community in Western Kentucky.

About 300 persons—women, children and miners—lined a road leading from the mine area to seek out loved ones, relatives and friends among those being carried out.

One of those bystanders, a middle-aged man wearing a green work uniform said: "I've been in mining all my life and my brother-in-law is down there, and I know there is no chance."

'Where Do They Put the Numbers, Anyway?'

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK — (NEA)—Folks in Phoenix can draw deep, collective sighs of relief now. For Bobbie Gentry has pledged her mellifluous word that, when the new pro basketball team begins play this fall, she will not throw the first ball off the Tallahatchee edge." "I haven't checked out the team's wardrobe," she said, "so I don't know what I'll wear for the game. But I may dress in one of the player's jerseys. It would be like a minidress. Oooh. Can you imagine how that neckline would look? Say, where do they put the numbers on the uniform, anyway?"

No fledgling is Miss Gentry to the game of basketball. She demurely noted that she played it in Mississippi and again in high school when she moved to California. "But my guitar practice hasn't left much time to perfect my hook months ago. Her lawyer thought it a good investment. She agreed. "Basketball should draw well there," she said, frowning her magnate's brow. "Phoenix has no national league team. Only minor sports. And if it doesn't go over, we can always move the team."

"I intend to see a lot of games. I live in Los Angeles, and that's only 45 minutes by plane to Phoenix."

"Yes, I'm a big fan. Go ahead, ask me some questions. Let's see, a shot from the field is, uh—TWO POINTS. Right? And a free throw is one."

Someone ripped off a sheet from a note pad, drew a star and gave it to Miss Gentry. She licked the back side and slapped it proudly on her forehead. It stuck.

"So you have to write," she said, "that I'm not only enthusiastic about the game" (yes), "but, knowledgeable about it, too."

"We'll pass on that one, ple-e-ease."

French Have a Word for It—'Poulet Grille'

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

The French, devoted to their picnics, are now showing great interest in American-style portable grills and outdoor fireplaces. And, of course, they are also devoted to their chickens. So here is one of their newest recipes for Poulet Grille (grilled chicken), a perfect dish for that cookout in backyard or wherever you want to have it. Being experts in the use of wine in cooking, this recipe calls for both white wine and Armagnac brandy to bring out all the flavor and tenderness.

The salad is unusually good, too. It is made with artichoke bottoms (very different from artichoke hearts) and flag-olets (green baby lima beans), both imported from France. It is marinated in olive oil, tarragon vinegar and Dijon mustard, plus salt and pepper.

- POULET GRILLE
3 chickens, 2½ to 3 lbs. each, cut in halves
¾ cup French olive oil
¾ cup white wine
1 clove garlic, chopped
1 teaspoon crumbled poultry seasoning
2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
2 tablespoons tomato paste
2 tablespoons Armagnac brandy

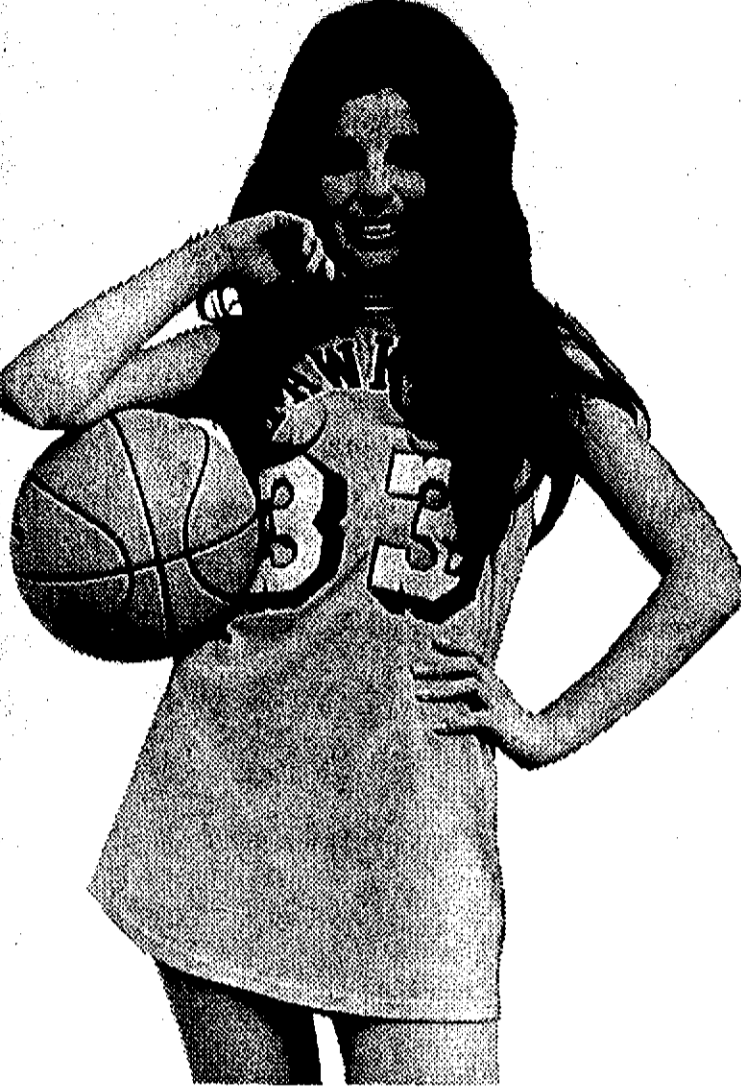

Put chicken halves in a shallow pan. Combine remaining ingredients and beat until well-blended. Pour over chicken and let stand 1 hour. Drain and broil 8 inches above coals, 20 minutes on each side, brushing chicken with marinade every 10 minutes.

Serve with a salad of Boston lettuce, halved artichoke bottoms and drained flag-olets, which have been marinated in equal parts olive oil, tarragon vinegar, salt, pepper and Dijon mustard to taste.

Poulet-grille, plus a tasty French salad.

BOBBIE GENTRY

Bridge.

What she will try to do is toss it in the hoop. Miss Gentry, who wrote the words and music and sang the hit song, "Ode to Billie Joe," is part owner of the National Basketball Association expansion club, along with Tony Curtis, Andy Williams, Henry Mancini and Ed Ames. The quintet will also compose the "starting five" prior to the Phoenix team's first game.

Miss Gentry, her dark brown hair billowing far below the shoulders of her multi-colored, gypsy-influenced voile minidress ("Got it in London. It's considered long there"), sat recently in the plush-leather pub of the Plaza Hotel.

It is quite a piece from her native Mississippi where on a sleepy, dusty, delta day workers are chopping cotton and ballin' hay and where Billy Joe McAllister—before taking the plunge—once put a frog down the back of a girl in the Carroll County picture show. Now she lounged, sipped a drink and talked basketball, somewhat.

("Pass the peanuts, ple-e-e-

shot," she said, straight-faced. Then her large brown eyes crinkled and her full lips burst into a honeysuckle smile. "We haven't figured out what position I'll be playing. After all, it's a brand new team."

"Pass the ball, ple-e-ease."

"Oh gee, I just thought of something," she said, shaking hair from her eyes. "A reporter asked me earlier what the name of the team is. I said the Phoenix Suns. It is, isn't it?" (Yes.) "Good. . . By the way, who's the coach? You know I just got back from London and haven't been on all the news." She was told the coach is Johnny Kerr. "What's he like? Is he good? Say, do we have any players yet?"

She was asked her favorite players. "Favorites!" she exclaimed. "I'm lucky if I can name any players, period. There's Wilt and there's Elgin. . . That's all I know. Do you think they'd play for my team?" She was assured they would probably enjoy that, but little details like contracts might mess things up. "Hmmm," she intoned.

Cakes for a Crowd by Betty Crocker

You're planning a family reunion, a class reunion, a neighborhood political rally maybe? Anyway, the crowd will be big so borrow all the coffee pots you can and let me help with the big batch cakes. How about my prized Velvet Crumb Cake below? A tender white cake made with Bisquick and frosted with Broiled Topping. It's speedy and delicious. Or try the crowd-size Rocky Road Cake that's made with mixes. It's chocolate inside and out, with marshmallows and almonds added to the frosting. Both are cakes that travel and handle well because they're frosted right in the pan. And either, I promise you, will go over big with your big party crowd.

VELVET CRUMB CAKE

- 3 cups New Bisquick
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup cold water or milk
¼ cup shortening
2 teaspoons vanilla
Broiled Topping (below)
- Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour oblong pan, 13x9x2 inches. In large mixer bowl, blend all ingredients except Broiled Topping on low speed 1½ minute, scraping side and bottom of bowl frequently. Beat 4 minutes on medium speed. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes. While warm, spread Broiled Topping over cake.

Broiled Topping: Mix ¼ cup soft butter, ½ cup brown sugar (packed), 3 tablespoons light cream, ½ cup coconut and 1½ cup chopped nuts. Set oven control at broil and/or 550°. Place cake about 3 inches from heat; broil about 3 minutes until mixture is nicely browned.

ROCKY ROAD CAKE

- 1 package devil's food cake mix
1 package dark chocolate creamy-type frosting mix
½ cup chopped toasted almonds
1 cup miniature marshmallows
- Bake cake in oblong pan, 13x9x2 inches, as directed on package.

Cool. Prepare frosting mix as directed on package except—stir in almonds and marshmallows. If too stiff to spread, add few drops water.

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

SHORT PIE

- Baked Short Pie Shell (below)
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
3 tablespoons water
1 cup chocolate syrup
2 cups chilled whipping cream
½ cup confectioners' sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
- Bake Short Pie Shell. Cool. Soften gelatin in water; dissolve over hot water. Stir into chocolate syrup. In chilled bowl, beat cream, confectioners' sugar and salt until stiff. Fold into chocolate mixture. Pile into Baked Short Pie Shell. Chill until set, at least 4 hours. Remove pie from refrigerator 20 minutes before serving. 6 servings.

Baked Short Pie Shell: Heat oven to 450°. In small mixing bowl or 9-inch pie pan, combine 1 cup New Bisquick and 1 cup soft butter. Add 3 tablespoons boiling water; stir vigorously with fork until dough forms a ball and cleans the bowl. Dough will be puffy and soft. With floured fingers and heel of hand, pat dough evenly into 9-inch pie pan, bringing up dough to edge of pan. Flute edge if desired. Bake 8 to 10 minutes.

Candidates Find Doors Open, Shut

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — State Rep. Marion Crank was opening doors here Wednesday while doors were being shut in the face of Mrs. Virginia Johnson.

Crank and Mrs. Johnson brought their campaigns here Wednesday in quest of votes that could lead them to the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in Tuesday's runoff election.

The doors Crank opened were the ones to a campaign headquarters he opened in this county seat of Jefferson County, a county which Crank conceded he neglected in the first primary.

The doors that were shut to Mrs. Johnson were at the Leithing Group factory, where she was attempting to greet workers during a shift change before being ordered off the property.

As Mrs. Johnson began shaking hands with the workers, Ike Taylor, the personnel manager, approached her and told her to leave.

Newsman at the scene quoted Taylor as saying, "Nobody comes inside this gate for any reason. Now get that damn car out of here. I don't care where you came from or what you're running for. Get that car out. Get these people out. This is private property."

Mrs. Johnson, on leaving the company premises, told a newsman, "He's had a bad day and I can understand his problems. I don't want to create a safety problem so I'll move."

Crank said at his headquarters that his administration would not hesitate to propose additional taxes for new programs if a need developed for a specific program in the state.

Crank said he did not know if a tax increase would be necessary over-all, but said there

What a Man Dreams of Doing Is Really What Makes Him Gay, Happy

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — It isn't what a man gets or does that makes him happy—it's what he dreams of getting or doing.

When a man runs out of goals in this world he usually runs out of breath shortly thereafter. Rust clogs him, ennui mows him down.

No matter how fruitless, inappropriate or downright foolish a dream may be, so long as it attracts that person's interest it keeps him alive. Most daydreams, in fact, are mock heroic. In his heart of hearts the most rut-bound man is always galloping off with the Three Musketeers on missions of danger and adventure.

For example, I find in making a rollick of my own frustrated daydreams, I have yet to—

Stun a bully with a karate chop.

Play "knees under the table" with Kim Novak.

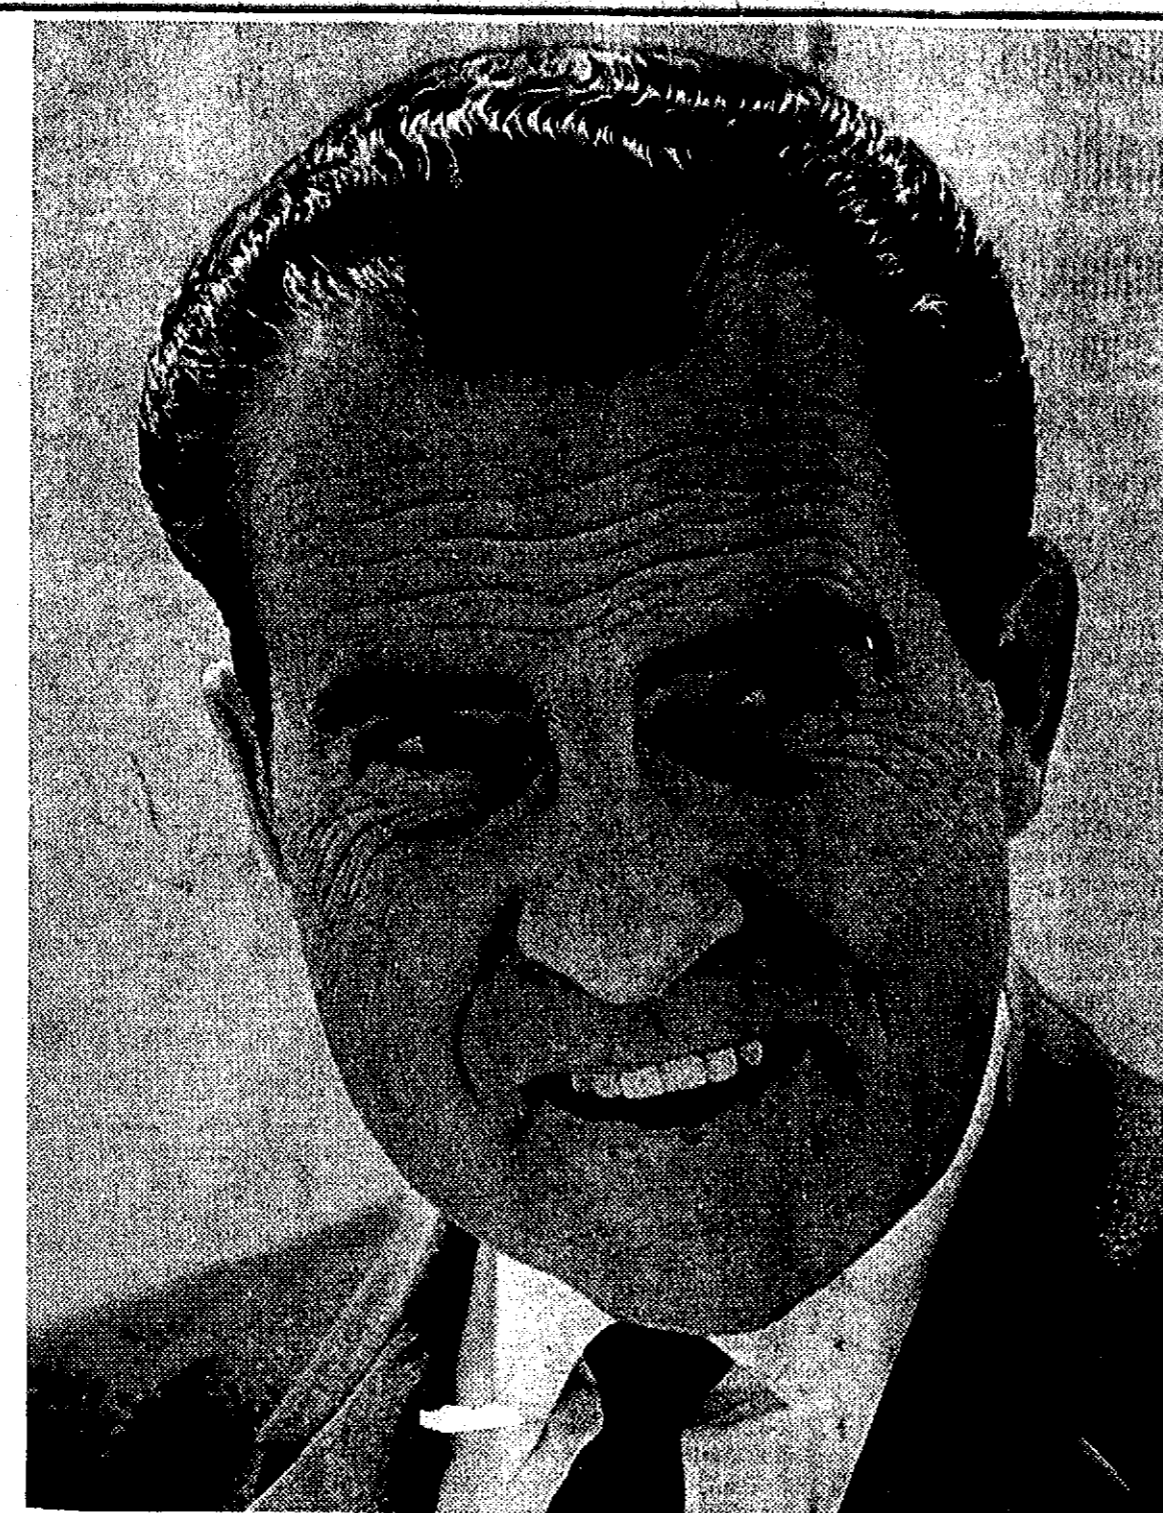

Bulldoze a steer or ride a bucking horse in a rodeo.

Buy a kitchen sink garbage grinder.

Belly up to the bar in the Ritz Hotel in Paris and ask the bartender whom he really liked better—F. Scott Fitzgerald or Ernest Hemingway.

Eat a pickled eel or a tiger steak.

Ike's Doctor Sees Some Progress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's doctors say he has shown some progress since suffering his sixth heart attack but that this early "the outcome is unpredictable."

There have been cardiac irregularities since the attack, described as major, Tuesday morning but they have not been pronounced, doctors reported Wednesday.

They indicated optimism over the 77-year-old, five-star general's condition after his third heart attack in three months and sixth since 1965 by limiting medical bulletins to one a day unless his condition worsens.

Eisenhower has not been allowed to watch the Republican National Convention on television.

Bands of Negroes Set Fire to Cars, Stone Motorists in Miami

By STRATTON L. DOUTHAT
Associated Press Writer

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bands of young Negroes set fire to cars, stoned white motorists and looted stores in a five-block area of northwest Miami Wednesday night in a disturbance touched off when police massed at a rally aimed at airing problems facing Negroes.

Some 25 persons were injured, including two Negroes who police said were shot by unknown gunmen.

About 100 Negroes were arrested, mostly on charges of disorderly conduct leading to rioting.

Trouble broke out in the predominantly Negro area about 6:30 p.m., several hours before Republican delegates 10 miles away across Biscayne Bay on Miami Beach nominated Richard M. Nixon as their presidential candidate.

Miami Police Lt. Jay Golden said both of the men who were shot were in good condition. He said: "The police have not fired one bullet."

Clarence Curry, 25, was wounded as he was being questioned in a looting case. Golden said two shots rang out in the darkness but no gunman was seen. The other shooting victim, Cephus Griffen, was hit by a stray bullet as he walked along a sidewalk, police said.

Most of the injured suffered cuts from broken glass and bruises from rocks and bottles. Police said at least 32 stores were broken into and seven were looted. Three cars were burned and two were damaged by rocks.

Four newsmen were among the injured and a man driving a car with a George Wallace bumper sticker was stoned as hundreds of Negroes circled his wrecked automobile. Dazed and bleeding, he was pulled to safety in a bar by two Negroes.

The violence ended after the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, leading his Poor People's Campaign at the GOP convention, and Gov. Claude Kirk, a convention delegate, walked through

Allied Raids Disrupt Cong Supply Lines

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American and South Vietnamese troops have invaded the A Shau Valley for the second time in three and a half months, disrupting the major Communist supply base again as part of their campaign to blunt the big enemy offensive expected in the next month or so.

A fleet of 200 helicopters landed more than 3,000 soldiers of the U.S. 101st Air Cavalry Division and the Vietnamese 1st Infantry Division in the valley in the northern part of South Vietnam Sunday and Monday, but announcement of the operation was withheld until today for security reasons.

The U.S. Command in Saigon said the allied force has met with "minimal resistance" so far. Probably warned by the heavy air activity that preceded the invasion, the North Vietnamese presumably pulled back across the nearby Laotian border.

U.S. headquarters reported that 15 North Vietnamese troops had been killed in the first four days of the operation. U.S. losses were two dead and 22 wounded, while eight South Vietnamese were killed and 18 wounded.

Three helicopter gunships were shot down during the first minutes of the massive assault by 200 troop-carrying helicopters and their escorts. One crashed and burned, killing a crewman and injuring three others. But the antiaircraft fire was scanty compared to the heavy barrages that destroyed or damaged 129 U.S. helicopters during the first invasion of the valley in April.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that government troops uncovered an enemy base camp containing 50 barracks. Searching the structures, the South Vietnamese found an assortment of ammunition including 10 rockets and 15 cases of .50-caliber machine gun ammunition. More than 4,000 pounds of rice also had been left behind.

Just outside the eastern edge of the valley, units of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division uncovered an enemy bunker complex.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION
Richard M. Nixon breaks the lines of industrial state opposition to win a first-ballot Republican presidential nomination. He promises a quick choice of a running mate.

New York Mayor John V. Lindsay, Sen. Mark O. Hatfield and Sen. Charles H. Percy are mentioned most as possible GOP vice presidential candidates.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's failure to win the nomination almost surely will be recorded as a classic example of the adage, "He who hesitates is lost."

David Merrick, the Broadway producer, rates the convention as "a terrible bore... too long... too dull... a flop."

Some American troops in Vietnam voice their views on Nixon's victory.

El Dorado Boys Club Closed

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The Board of Directors of the El Dorado Boys Club closed the club Wednesday after a group of 15 to 20 Negroes attempted to gain admittance.

Bob Sweeney, president of the board, said he expected the club to stay closed until the board meets Tuesday to discuss the issue.

The club's swimming pool was closed for the rest of the summer Tuesday after Negroes tried to gain access to it.

Nixon, 55, will be running with a 49-year-old vice presidential candidate. But first the party delegates, at a session tonight, will have to go through the motions of ratifying Nixon's selection. The two candidates then will make acceptance speeches.

Nixon's first ballot victory culminated a smoothly organized for a second try at the presidency. Nixon lost out to John F. Kennedy in a tight race in 1960.

Delegates erupted in a turbulent shouting, band-blaring, sign-waving demonstration when Wisconsin was reached on the state roll call. Nixon had sewed up the 30 Wisconsin votes in a primary and it was those votes which put him over the 667 count necessary for the nomination.

Nixon later summed up his victory in these words at a news conference:

"I was ready, I was willing and the events were such that the party wanted me."

The next order of business today was for Nixon to name his choice for the vice-presidential spot.

At the storied 3 o'clock in the morning, celebrated in an old song, Nixon got a call from the man he thinks he will oppose in November, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

There was some unreported banter between the two friendly enemies, each wary of an unexpected cut from an opponent with the respected ability of expert fencers to deliver a political wound. They joked about a vice president's combatant society, Rep. Clark MacGregor, R-Minn., reported.

C.V. Nunn Jr., Suffocates in New Mexico

Claude V. Nunn Jr., 43, a native of Hope, suffocated early today at his home at Lordsburg, N.M. He grew up in Hope and served as deputy prosecuting attorney for the City of Lordsburg. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Katherine Tolleson Nunn and a son, Rammel and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude V. Nunn Sr. of Hope.

The body will be returned to Hope for burial.

Crank Thinks Casino Vote Was Mistake

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gubernatorial hopeful Marin H. Crank of Foreman says he made a mistake when he voted for a bill to provide casino gambling in Arkansas.

The Democratic gubernatorial runoff contender expressed his view in a letter to Dr. Erwin L. McDonald, editor of the Arkansas Baptist News-Magazine, which published the letter in today's edition.

The Legislature adopted a bill to legalize casino gambling last year, but Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller vetoed the measure.

"In my 17 years of service in the legislature, I have never before voted for a bill of this type, and I must say here that the decision was based upon the information presented at that time," Crank said in the letter.

"We know now that this decision was a mistake," he wrote.

The letter was prompted by an article detailing the voting record of members of the legislature last year on the gambling bill.

Crank's letter added: "I have publicly stated on numerous occasions that I am opposed to illegal gambling anywhere in the state of Arkansas and I am also opposed to legalization of casino gambling. So, when I am elected governor, I will use the powers of my office to see that the laws of this state are enforced, including the anti-gambling statutes."

Baptist ministers around the state have been in the fore of efforts to combat legalization of gambling in Arkansas.
